Ice breaker for the cynical student

I would just like to start by thanking the rest of the BFLG that I met last Friday. It was so refreshing to meet a group of such enthusiastic, inspiring and helpful people.

I thoroughly enjoyed the day. Stella's illustration of BFL in the morning made me realise how much potential there is to use it within the organisation I work for. I picked up so many new ideas from the other delegates chatting to them over lunch.

I was then able to raise an item for discussion.

I need a suitable icebreaker for a particularly cynical group but that I need to obtain some initial information from the students.

The ideas that were put forward were sending the students a questionnaire prior to attending along with a joining letter. The use of posters around the room when they arrive and changing the room layout. I will be incorporating the ideas in the next course in May and will let you know how I get on.

Thank you again to all of those who have helped.:side:
